1. Introduction to Baseline Assessments

A baseline assessment is a diagnostic tool that provides a snapshot of your child's current academic abilities. Unlike formal examinations, baseline tests are designed to identify strengths and areas for improvement, helping to establish a starting point for 11+ preparation.

These mini-tests serve several important purposes:

- Identifying current ability levels across key subject areas
- Highlighting specific skills that require additional focus
- Providing realistic practice in examination conditions
- Building confidence through familiar question formats
- Tracking progress over time as preparation continues

The tests in this guide are designed to reflect the standards and question types commonly found in 11+ examinations, particularly those administered by GL Assessment, which is used by many grammar schools across the UK.

2. Understanding the 11+ Examination

English Component

The 11+ English examination typically comprises two main sections:

Reading Comprehension: Students read a passage and answer questions testing their understanding, inference skills, and vocabulary knowledge.

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar (SPaG): This section includes exercises on completing sentences, identifying errors, and demonstrating knowledge of grammatical rules.

Mathematics Component

The 11+ Mathematics examination covers the full Year 6 curriculum and includes:

Number and Place Value: Understanding of decimal system, rounding, and number operations

Arithmetic: Addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division calculations

Fractions and Percentages: Converting between forms and solving problems

Geometry: Properties of shapes, angles, and spatial reasoning

Measurement: Units, conversions, and problem-solving with measurements

Statistics: Interpreting data, averages, and simple probability

The Secret Garden

Mary Lennox had lived in India with her parents, but after they died from cholera, she was sent to live with her uncle in Yorkshire. The journey to Misselthwaite Manor was long and dreary, and Mary felt utterly miserable. She had been spoiled and selfish in India, with servants attending to her every need, but now she found herself alone in a vast, gloomy house.

The manor was ancient and mysterious, with hundreds of rooms and long corridors that seemed to stretch on forever. Mary's uncle, Lord Archibald Craven, was a reclusive man who travelled frequently and paid little attention to his ward. The housekeeper, Mrs. Medlock, was stern and forbidding, making it clear that Mary was not to wander about the house or disturb anyone.

Despite these warnings, Mary's curiosity got the better of her. One day, whilst exploring the grounds, she discovered a hidden door concealed by ivy. Behind it lay a secret garden that had been locked away for ten years. The garden was wild and overgrown, but Mary could see that it had once been beautiful. She decided to restore it to its former glory, and this project would transform not only the garden but Mary herself.
